

I'm strongly opposed to telemarketing calling my family at any given time. Our time at home is private and not for individuals to call or attempt to scam my family or I. It becomes very disruptive when people call at all hours of the night or day, particularly in the a.m. I would greatly appreciate any limitations possible with telemarketer's.